

Natasha's Story

Natasha Tyler, U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Army Veteran

My cause is veterans. I am a veteran, and I come from a family of service members dating back to the Korean War, so I have a personal responsibility to help my fellow comrades through personal service and donating to organizations that support our service members through the CFC. When I was first discharged from the United States Army, entering the workforce proved to be a lot more challenging than I had anticipated. I realized quickly that I was not alone and many veterans had difficulties in trying to find jobs as a civilian. Every year, I find multiple veterans nonprofit organizations that I am able to donate to through the CFC. Each of these organizations will use the funding they receive to assist my fellow comrades in finding their next career in the civilian workforce.

"My cause is veterans because I am a veteran, and I come from a family of service members dating back to the Korean War. I feel I have a personal responsibility to help my fellow comrades."
